ORDER

Before the Court are motions to dismiss filed by Jeannie Chisholm; Rawlings & MacInnis, PA; Tammy Vinson; and The UPS Store, Inc.<sup>1</sup> Docket Nos. 26 and 41. They contend that the Receiver's factual allegations are insufficiently detailed, that the law bars the Receiver's claims, and that The UPS Store in particular cannot be held liable because the local store that aided and abetted Lamar Adams' fraudulent scheme was merely a franchise.

The Court respectfully disagrees. The complaint is particularly detailed, Fifth Circuit and Mississippi law support the Receiver's causes of actions, and The UPS Store's affirmative defense is one that will turn on the facts adduced during discovery. The better course of action is to begin that discovery, which in a case about notarization should not be overly complex, and adjudicate the motions for summary judgment next year.

For these reasons, the motions are denied. Within 10 days, the parties shall contact the
